Mike Smith, the camp director, is the Supervisor of Officials for the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference (WHAC), a collegiate conference of eight men's and women's teams in Michigan and Indiana. He is also the Supervisor of Officials for the Oakland Activities Association (OAA) and the Detroit Public School League (PSL) high school leagues. This is Mike's 16th basketball officiating camp designed to improve officiating skills through quality instruction using constructive criticism, videotape, and verbal interpretation. Mike has been instrumental in the development of officials through the ranks to work all levels of college basketball. He is looking to upgrade his college and high school officiating staffs and this camp provides an excellent opportunity for improvement. In addition to being an excellent teacher and student of the game, Mike is widely recognized as one of the top basketball officials in Michigan.

Other supervisors who will be present are Mike Conlin (Supervisor of Officials for Michigan Community College, Men's), Joe Cooper (Supervisor of Officials for the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association), Wallace Whitfield (Supervisor of Officials for the Western Lakes (High School)) and Malcolm Pennington (Supervisor of Officials for Detroit PSL (High School)).

Attending this camp does not guarantee an official that they will be added to any conference, nor do the conferences require attending this camp.
